Humana Elects Gordon Smith to Board of Directors

October 23, 2024 at 4:15 PM EDT

LOUISVILLE, Ky.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 23, 2024-- Humana Inc. (NYSE: HUM) announced today that Gordon Smith has been elected as a member of the Company's Board of Directors.

Smith serves as an Operating Advisor of Clayton, Dubilier & Rice LLC (CD&R) Funds, a leading private investment firm. He was previously Co-President and Co-Chief Operating Officer of JPMorgan Chase & Co. (JPMorgan), where he was a member of the firm's Operating Committee and helped oversee all aspects of the company's business and operations from 2018 until his retirement in January of 2022. His career at JPMorgan began in 2007 and spanned 15 years, during which he also served as Chief Executive Officer of Consumer and Community Banking from 2012 to 2021. Prior to JPMorgan, Smith spent more than 25 years at American Express, where he led and managed several businesses including the Global Commercial Card Business.

"We are excited to welcome Gordon to the Humana Board. He is an extremely accomplished executive with deep experience leading complex, highly regulated organizations in driving better, faster and more efficient consumer businesses," said Humana Chairman of the Board Kurt J. Hilzinger. "Gordon's deep operational expertise will provide the Board with valuable insights into the customer journey across complementary businesses, brand management, and accelerating the digital transformation of legacy enterprises. His addition will further enhance our Board's robust strategic oversight as the company continues to grow its Medicare Advantage and CenterWell health care services businesses, drive operational efficiencies, and create seamless, personalized consumer experiences, all of which will position Humana to deliver sustainable shareholder value over the long term."

His election brings the number of Humana directors to 12.
