To the Plan Administrator Humana Puerto Rico 1165(e) Retirement Plan

December 31, 2002

In our opinion, the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits presents fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Humana Puerto Rico 1165(e) Retirement Plan (the Plan) at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules of assets (held at end of year) and of reportable transactions are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. These supplemental schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Summary of Plan:

The Humana Puerto Rico 1165(e) Retirement Plan (the Plan), is a qualified, trusteed plan established for the benefit of the employees of Humana Health Plans of Puerto Rico, Inc., and Humana Insurance of Puerto Rico, Inc. and who are residents of Puerto Rico. The Plan is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Humana Inc. (Humana or the Company) is the sponsor of the Plan and is one of the nation's largest publicly traded health benefits companies offering coordinated health insurance coverage and related services through traditional and internet-based plans, for employer groups, government sponsored programs, and individuals. This document describes the Plan during 2002 and 2001.

a. Contributions: The Plan maintains two accounts, the Pretax Savings Account and the Retirement Account, a profit sharing account

Any employee of the Company who is employed with a sponsoring employer is eligible to participate in the Plan's Pretax Savings Account. Prior to January 1, 2002 a participating employee was required to complete at least one year of service with at least 1,000 hours of service. A participant, through payroll deductions, may contribute not less than 1% nor more than 10% of the participant's annual compensation, not to exceed the Puerto Rico Tax Code limitation in effect for the calendar years, which was $8,000 for 2002 and 2001. On January 1, 2002, the Company began automatic contributions in the amount of 3% of the participant's compensation 45 days after the employee's date of hire, unless the employee elects not to participate in the Pretax Savings Account or elects a different percentage up to 10%. The Company's matching contribution is equal to 50% of the participant's contribution up to 6% of the participant's annual compensation for any participating employee. The Board of Directors of the Company, at its option, may increase this matching percentage up to 100%. All matching contributions are funded bi-weekly and are invested in the Humana Stock Fund. Effective January 1, 2002, once the matching contributions are funded, participants can transfer the matching contributions among any funds within the Plan. Prior to January 1, 2002, the Company's matching contributions were nonparticipant directed and were invested in the Humana Common Stock Fund. The Humana Common Stock Fund consisted solely of shares of the Company's common stock. On January 1, 2002, funds were transferred to a new Humana Stock Fund, which is now a participant directed commingled fund that invests primarily in the Company's common stock with a minor portion of short-term investments. Ownership in the Humana Stock Fund is measured by units rather than shares of common stock. Therefore, effective January 1. 2002, $548,136 of nonparticipant directed funds in the Humana Common Stock Fund were transferred to the Humana Stock Fund and became participant directed.

a. Contributions, continued: After an employee completes two years of service with a sponsoring employer and has complied with certain other service requirements, the employee becomes eligible to participate in the profit sharing. For the calendar year ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company declared a profit sharing contribution of approximately $465,000 and $364,000 respectively. This contribution was made into the Retirement Account of the Plan and was allocated to the participants based on an amount equal to 4% of each participating employee's qualifying compensation earned during the plan year, plus 4% of any compensation that exceeds the social security taxable wage base. Contribution amounts are computed as of the end of each plan year and are nonforfeitable.

Contributions to the Plan by or on behalf of employees may be restricted in amount and as to timing so as to meet various requirements of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986, as amended.

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contributions, the Company's contributions, the allocations of Plan earnings, and charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participants' account balances.

Participants may allocate contributions to the Pretax Savings Account and the Company's contribution to the Retirement Account among various investment options in 1% increments. During 2001, the Plan offered eight mutual funds and the Humana Common Stock Fund as investment options. However, upon a change in trustees during 2002, the Plan now offers eight new mutual funds, the Humana Stock Fund, and the Schwab Personal Choice Retirement Account (PCRA), which is a self-directed brokerage account, as investment options. In the absence of such allocation, contributions are invested in the Primco Stable Value Fund. In connection with a change in allocation of a participant's or the Company's future contributions among the ten investment options and a change in the investment of existing accounts, the purchases and sales due to fund transfers are transacted at the funds' net asset value on the day the transaction is initiated.

Employee contributions are nonforfeitable. Effective January 1, 2002, participants who withdraw from the Pretax Savings Account prior to being credited with three years of service with the Company will forfeit the employer contributions. Once a participant has completed three years of service, the employer contributions become totally nonforfeitable. Prior to January 1, 2002, participants who withdrew from the Pretax Savings Account prior to being credited with four years of participation or five years of service with the Company were eligible to receive generally the value of employer contributions at the withdrawal date, exclusive of those made during the two years preceding withdrawal. Employer contributions became totally nonforfeitable after the participant was credited with four years of participation in the Plan or five years of service with the Company.

- a. Contributions, continued: Forfeited balances of terminated participants' nonvested accounts are used to reduce future Company contributions. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account. Employer contributions, forfeited as a result of withdrawal following termination of employment, will be available to reduce the amount of subsequent employer contributions to the Pretax Savings Account. If a former participant is re-employed prior to five consecutive one-year breaks in service and repays the amount of his/her distribution, then any forfeited employer contributions are restored to his/her account.
- b. Withdrawals: The value of a participant's interest, including employer contributions, is generally payable upon the occurrence of one of the following events: (1) the participant's termination of employment; (2) a determination by the Company upon competent medical or other evidence that, by reason of permanent and total disability, the participant is incapable of performing the duties of his/her work; or (3) the participant's death.

In the event funds are needed because of extreme financial hardship, as defined by law, the participant may be allowed to make a withdrawal of his/her vested account balance. In addition, the Plan contains restrictions relating to minimum withdrawals and the frequency of withdrawals.

Benefits under the Plan are payable to withdrawing participants, including retirees, as follows:

- a. A lump-sum distribution in cash or, in the event of a distribution from the Humana Stock Fund, partially or totally in Humana common stock, or
- b. Monthly, quarterly or annual installments for a period of 5, 10, 15 or 20 years not to exceed the life expectancy of the participant, or the joint and last survivor expectancy of the participant and designated beneficiary, or
- c. A life annuity paid monthly or quarterly, or
- d. A life annuity with guaranteed payments for a period of 5, 10, 15 or 20 years.

If the vested account balance is less than $5,000, a lump-sum distribution will be made.

The Plan permits the employee to roll over contributions from another qualified plan. An employee must make a written request to the Plan for a rollover contribution. These contributions must comply with certain requirements before the Plan will authorize the rollover contribution.

b. Withdrawals, continued: Participants may borrow from their fund accounts. The aggregate of the loans to a participant shall not exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of the vested portion of his/her participant contribution accounts, voluntary contribution accounts, plus his/her employer Pretax Savings Account to which he/she would be entitled to if he/she incurred a termination of employment. Effective January 1, 2002, the minimum a participant may borrow is $1,000. Prior to this, the minimum borrowing was $500. Loan transactions are treated as a transfer to (from) the various investment funds from (to) the Participant Notes Receivable. Loan terms range from one to four years or up to ten years for the purchase of a primary residence. The loans are collateralized by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at a reasonable rate in accordance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, as determined by the Plan Administrator. Principal and interest are repaid ratably through payroll deductions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

- a. Basis of Accounting: The financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual method of accounting. Withdrawals by participants are recorded when paid. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a settlement-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.
- b. Valuation of Investments: Effective January 1, 2002, the Plan's investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the year. Common/collective trusts and mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices that represent the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year end. The Humana Stock Fund is comprised of shares of the Company's common stock and a small portion of short-term investments. The Humana Stock Fund is measured by units and is valued based on the quoted closing market price of the Company's common stock. Participant loans and investments in money market funds are valued at cost, which approximates fair value. The PCRA is a self-directed brokerage account, which is comprised of various investments such as cash, common stock, mutual funds, U.S. Governmental securities, and corporate bonds, and is valued based on quoted market prices.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

b. Valuation of Investments, continued: Prior to January 1, 2002, the fair value of the Plan's interest in the Master Trust was based on the beginning of the year value of the Plan's interest in the trust plus actual contributions and allocated investment income (reported net of administrative expenses) less actual distributions. Investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange were valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the year. Securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date were valued at the mean between the last reported bid and asked prices. Securities for which no market quotation was readily available were valued at fair value as determined by National City Trust, the trustee in 2001. Shares of registered investment companies were valued at quoted market prices, which represented the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end. The Company stock was valued at its quoted market price. Participant notes receivable and investments in money market funds were valued at cost, which approximated fair value.

Investments in traditional and synthetic guaranteed investment contracts (GICs) with banks and insurance companies are fully benefit-responsive and are carried at contract value, which represents contributions, plus interest earned at specified rates, less withdrawals and administrative expenses.

The Plan presents in the accompanying statements of changes in net assets available for benefits the net appreciation or depreciation in fair value of investments, which consists of both realized gains or losses and unrealized appreciation or depreciation.

c. Management Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of additions to and deductions from net assets during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Investments:

For 2001, the Plan's investment assets were held in the Humana Retirement and Savings Master Trust (Master Trust) by a custodian trust company. Earnings of the Master Trust were allocated between the Plan and the Humana Retirement and Savings Plan (Humana Plan) based on each plan's investment balance to the total Master Trust investment balance. Earnings were further allocated to the respective participants based on each participant's respective asset total to total Plan assets. Effective January 1, 2002, the Company appointed Schwab Retirement Plan Services as the new recordkeeper and Charles Schwab Trust Company as the new trustee. With the move to the new trustee, the Master Trust was eliminated and the assets of the Master Trust were transferred to two individual trusts - one for the Humana Retirement and Savings Plan and one for the Puerto Rico Plan.

The following table presents the fair value/contract value of investments at December 31, 2002 and 2001. Investments that represent 5% or more of the Plan's assets have been separately identified.

During 2002 and 2001, the Plan's investments, including investments bought, sold, and held during the year, depreciated in value $325,040 and $201,825, respectively.

As of December 31, 2001, the Plan's interest in the Master Trust was 0.5%. Investment income, administrative expenses and realized gains or losses related to the Master Trust were allocated monthly to the individual plans based upon the beginning monthly balances invested by each plan.

At December 31 2002, the Primco Stable Value Fund represents traditional and synthetic GICs in which the Plan has a 1% interest and the Humana Plan has a 99% interest. At December 31, 2001, these same GICs were held in the Master Trust. The total contracts held within the Primco Stable Value fund as of December 31, 2002 are as follows:

Synthetic GICs are investment contracts that simulate the performance of traditional GICs through the use of financial instruments. The assets are held in trust for the Plan by the issuer of the investment contract. The Plan then enters into a benefit responsive "wrapper" contract with a third-party such as a financial institution or an insurance company, which guarantees the Plan a specific value and rate of return for the assets held in trust. The underlying financial instrument held in trust and the wrapper contract are presented together in the financial statements at contract value. The wrapper contract is valued at the difference between the fair value of the trust assets and the contract value attributable by the wrapper to such assets and was $3,696,091 and $2,178,536 on December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

The fair value of the investments carried at contract value in the Plans at December 31, 2002 was $113,608,730, and the fair value of investments carried at contract value in the Master Trust at December 31, 2001 was $99,475,491. The average yield and crediting interest rate approximated 5.5% and 6.0% for 2002 and 2001, respectively.

4. Income Tax Status:

The Plan was established pursuant to the provisions of Section 165(e) of the Puerto Rico Income Tax Act of 1954 (the Act). A favorable tax status determination letter dated May 22, 1995 was obtained from the Treasury Department of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, which stated that its underlying trust qualifies under the applicable provisions of the Act and, therefore, is exempt from Puerto Rico income taxes. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter; however, the Company and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is designed and is currently operating in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Act. The Plan was amended to comply with Section 1165(e) of the Puerto Rico Income Tax Act of 1994.

5. Plan Termination:

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. If the Plan is terminated, the interest of each participant would continue to be nonforfeitable and would be distributed as determined by the Company.

6. Related Party Transactions:

Administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by the Plan and allocated to the participants' accounts. Certain Plan investments are shares of mutual funds managed by the trustee and therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.
